THE REIGN OF AUTUMN. The runt is over the red of the clever,
The green is under the gray,
And down the holiow the fleet-winged swallor
1s flying away and away.

Fied are the roses, dead are the roses, The glow and the glory done:
And down the hollow the fleet-winged awalls:
Flying the way o' the sun. In place of summer a dead new-comer His solemn state renews; crimson sylendor lestead of the tender Drive, and the durling dews.

But oh, thus weetness, the full of completene.
That under his rogal are born!
Russet and voltow in apples mellow,
And wheat, and millet, and corn.

His frosts so heary touch with glory
Maple, and oak, and thorn:
And, rising and falling, his winds are calling, lake a hunter through his hora. That comes when the day is done, With warmth a beaming and gold a-gleam like sunset after the sun-

And while fair weather and frost together color the woods so gay, must remember that chill December has turned his steps this way. And say, as we gather in the house together,

THE CANVASS IN WEST TENNESSEE

Speeches from Etheridge and Forrest. Mr. Etheridge addressed the people of Gilson county at Trenton, on Monday last. We make the following extracts: I address myself with sorrowto men who day they cannot vote for fleymour and Blair every Rebel surrendered, laid down his secause they (Seymour and Blair) are arms, and for the last time saluted that Democrats. I will give you fredit for the flag he had followed and fought under for sincerity of your statements; but, sire, Clay were here now he would be found ook and see some of those who claimed to be Whige associating with the disgusting vermin that pollute our soil here in Trenton, and see them with their guns coming out of the filthy dens with negroes, and were told that the were Whigs, he would say: "I never knew you; depart from me,

You cannot find any scabol-master that can read or speak the English language with propriety that is now in the Bladical camp. I mention this to slow where the Whig party is-Sir, all that is respectable in the Whig party, it is one to truth to say, is outside o the Radical camp. But mind, when I say Tennessee Radicalista, I do not presume to ! ment any Northern Radicals by intimating one of you, who did not forget you a cr that they have any respect for it. [Laugh-? Because there they said the slaves must be freed as an inevitable result of the war, but do not make the negro their political equal; but it remains to the crawling, creeping, teathnome things that crawl in the dust-it remained to the scalawag in Tennesses to place the black man upon us, their freedom, they have only done what and wrest from you your right to vote. I every human being similarly situated thank God there is not one in a thousand would do. Being free, there is not a man. south of the Chilo river that descends to woman or child in all this land who would ach depth of infany.

You are a White are you, and you cansor go with the Democratic party. Let me ask you, who did you hear making the last Whig speeches in Tennessee? Go back to she had Federal Congress that met worder the ald Constitution. Examine the but of the Congressmen and you will find the party such belong to indicated by the and of type used in printing his name, You will and but one marked "Whig-" Who is be? I am schamed to say I am the last man there called "Whig." And if over the Whig party should be resuscitated I will be the progenitor of that party.

I can say there are Democrats who are as honest, and patriotic, and as auxious to need not be asbanied to be working with them for the salvation of your country. But let me ask you, when you join the cratathat walk this earth. Every true Demount has sensibilities; he can get sick and worldt. [Laughter.] But they don't remit Ben, Butler, [Applause.] I will take the Democracy of Tennessee, and you may take Ben, Batler, and sing the silver spoon song, and if that's your choice you e welcome to it. Look at Kentucky, the land of Whigs, the land of Clay-for Clay and Whige seem to go together. Look at the best men there now. Are they Radicals? Censinly not; they can read and write, and they or com in their families. But I refer you to the debt of Kentucky. How much does he owe? Less than two millions, Since the war she has reduced her debt, and when the government pays back two mil-Loas horrowed of her for advances during the war, Kentucky will not owe a dollar, What are Kentucky bonds worth? One fundred cents on the dollar; while yours re worth fifty to sixty cents on the dollar. I now come to something a little more practical, the subject of taxation. I assert

So it is now, they will themselves see that it is false and and so it will be throughout all coming | without foundation, time.
